LGBT Rainbow Star's

Want to be part of a group that helps monitor and evaluate LGBT events, meetings, socials and work in Southwark?

Dax Ashworth the LGBT community safety worker at Southwark Council is looking to recruit a team of people that are willing to be asked a series of questions, four times a year, to monitor how the lives and experiences of the lesbian, gay, bisexual and trans community are effected by what takes place in the borough.

This is to help create a true picture of how people are interacting with a range of services, groups and organisations and to make recommendations for future work to make Southwark more dynamic, vibrant and safe for this community!

To be part in this group you can live/ work/ play/ learn and/or socialise in the borough.

People can take part in the monitoring in a number of ways: you choose!

- Over the phone
- By email
- On-line
- In person

All information treated in the stricted confidence!
